

Bill of Rights for Young Athletes

All youth have basic rights when parents involve them in sport settings. Cherry Hill FC has adopted the following:

1. Right to have fun.
2. Right to participate in sports
3. Right to participate at a level commensurate with each child's maturity and ability.
4. Right to have qualified coaches and administrators.
5. Right to play in developmentally appropriate forms of activities, not adult versions.
6. Right to share in leadership and decision making about their sport participation.
7. Right to participate in safe and healthy environments.
8. Right to proper preparation and conditioning for participation in sports.
9. Right to an equal opportunity to strive for success in sports.
10. Right to be treated with dignity by players, coaches, spectators and parents.

Original Source: The National Association for Sport & Physical Education, <http://www.aahperd.org/naspe>.